Recommendations

1. As club celebrates John McCullagh's Tyrone senior handball success 40 years ago, that we re-establish handball in our club at all levels. (Paddy Hunter)

2. That a sub-group for club history is formally established. (Paddy Hunter)
3. That a football committee/focus group be formed looking at competitive age groups from u14 to senior with a view to developing a 5-10 year plan to ensure that we are developing players to the standard required to maintain our elite youth football and O'Neill cup challenge. (Micky O'Neill)
4. All non-competitive team (u8.5-u12.5) are not to organise non-competitive games at the same time as Omagh senior championship games to ensure all our underage players can see and experience senior championship football. (Cathal McCarron)
5. To ask Croke Park to reconsider the rule to stop non-competitive tournaments from u8.5 to u12.5 as a lot of our players are going to other codes to seek a competitive environment. (Cathal McCarron)
6. That the club set up a sub-committee under the PRO to share responsibilities so everything within our club is promoted. (Cathal McCarron)
7. That end of season U8.5-U12.5 in-house tournaments be hosted at Healy Park. That a proportionate number of training sessions for these groups be hosted at Healy Park. There should be no age barrier to training or playing on Healy Park and thus exposing our younger members and their families to Healy Park facilities. (Keith Burns)
8. That u14 and u16 teams have the opportunity and choice to play competitive matches at Healy Park. All minor games to be played at Healy Park. A proportionate number of training session for u14/u16 to be at Healy Park. Use of St Patrick's Park, CBS and Healy Park would be at each respective manager's discretion. (Keith Burns)
9. No motions shall be suggested/put forward to County convention without consultation/discussion and voted on by the club committee. Such motions should be discussed with representatives of the relevant area and feedback provided to the committee by the relevant committee member. (Shane O'Neill)
10. That sub-committees are created for the various areas within the club. These committees can share the workload in the club and allow for more inclusivity. (Shane O'Neill)
11. Any club run events or profitable events held on club property should be discussed and voted on by the club committee before being ratified. (Shane O'Neill)

12. That an adult senior football committee should be set up consisting of the Vice chairman, senior player rep and senior football officer. They should be responsible for organisation of match day officials, after match refreshments, organisation of fundraisers as well as being involved in the process of appointing senior football manager. (Shane O'Neill)
13. All club spend over £3000 has to be approved by the Executive Committee following a vote at an Executive committee meeting with at least $\frac{3}{4}$ of the elected committee in attendance. (Paul Tierney)
14. Establishment of a Development sub-committee to review and implement the club development plan and explore development and infrastructure type activities and opportunities to enhance the playing facilities of the club. If the club development plan does not exist, this committee needs to be involved in creating and overseeing the plan and have further consultation with club members on planning the next 5-10 years. (Paul Tierney)
15. All Club Omagh subscriptions to be ring fences for Development team sub-committee approved activities. The key focus is to provide and ringfence the finance to the development team who are working to secure facilities for our growing number of youth members. The expenditure of Club Omagh subscriptions needs to be tangible and visible to all club members. (Paul Tierney)
16. Creation of a dedicated & elected Camogie Officer in the Executive Committee.
